

Thursday May 31	Welcome Hall	Amphi F	Room I	Room J
8:00 - 9:00 AM	Registration
8:30 - 9:30 AM		Keynote 3 - The EDEN Mother-Child cohort : a French study on early determinants of child health and development - Barbara Heude, Villejuif
9:30-9h45 AM
9:45 - 11:15 AM		S08 - Symposium 8 - Psychosocial development - Adult outcomes: results from a longitudinal study of children - Elizabeth Costello, Durham S08A - Impact of Bullying in Childhood on Adult Health, Wealth, Crime and Social Outcomes - Elizabeth Costello, Durham, USA S08B - Cannabis Use and Disorder from Childhood to Adulthood - Sherika Hill, Durham, USA S08C - Optimal outcomes of child and adolescent mental illness - Elizabeth Costello, Durham, USA		OC3 - Oral Communications 3 - Antisocial behavior Moderator - Anne-Laure Sutter, Bordeaux OC3A - Intergenerational continuity of antisocial behavior in families with a parent having bipolar disorder - Mark A. Ellenbogen, Montréal OC3B - Does coercive parenting influence the genetic and environmental etiology of childhood proactive and reactive aggression? A test of genetic correlation and moderation - Stéphane Paquin, Rosemere OC3C - Self-Control, Parental Control and Antisocial Behavior from Childhood to Adolescence: Evidence of Developmental Reciprocal Influences - MARIE-PIER Robitaille, Montréal OC3D - Association of Parenting, Peer Relations and Deviance Promotive Belief Systems with Risky Partnerships in Youth at Familial Risk for Conduct Problems - MIRIAM Ehrensaft, Durham OC3E - Childhood Aggression and the Inter-generational Transfer of Health Risk: A Thirty-year Prospective Study of Disadvantaged Families - Dale Stack, Montreal Mental and physical health OC3F - Mental health outcomes up to age 13 years associated with latent profiles of early developmental vulnerability at age 5 years - Vaughan Carr, Sydney
11:15 - 11:30 AM	Coffee break
11:30 AM - 1:00 PM		S10 - Symposium 10 - Psychosocial development - ADHD over the life course: Understanding the developmental course of ADHD from preschool to young adulthood - Jessica Agnew-Blais, London S10A - Predicting the adolescent-to-young adult outcome of preschool hyperactivity: psychopathology, functioning and costs - Edmund Sonuga-Barke, London S10B - Early risk factors for hyperactivity-impulsivity and inattention from 1.5 to 17-years: A population-based birth cohort study - Francis Vergunst, Montreal S10C - What is "adolescent-onset" ADHD? A population cohort investigation - Lucy Riglin, Cardiff S10D - Do changes in ADHD affect cognitive functioning in young adulthood? - Jessica Agnew-Blais, London	S11 - Symposium 11 - Psychosocial development - 99 - Peer groups, social support and loneliness: The role of social relationships in trajectories of health and development - Timothy Matthews, London S11A - Early puberty, friendship group characteristics, and dating abuse in US girls - Sara R. Jaffee, Philadelphia, PA S11B - Do high social support levels foster resilience to stressful life events? Rukmen Sehmi, London S11C - Protective factors for psychotic experiences amongst adolescents exposed to multiple forms of victimization - Eloise Crush, London S11D - Lonely young adults in modern Britain: findings from an epidemiological cohort study - Timothy Matthews, London	S12 - Symposium 12 - Mental and physical health - 65 - The retrospective collection of biographical data through the life history calendar: a useful method to understand [the health situation of vulnerable populations - ANNABEL Degrée du Loû, Paris S12A - TEEWA (Teens living with antiretrovirals) study : A life-event history approach among teenagers born with HIV - Sophie Lecoeur, Paris S12B - The impact of HIV and Hepatitis B on Sub-Saharan immigrants' lives in Paris greater area – results from a life event history survey - Anne Gosselin, Paris S12C - The retrospective life-course approach for studying people with disabilities' vulnerability to HIV in an African context - Pierre Debeaudrap, Paris
1:00 - 2:00 PM	Lunch & poster session	Discussion Poster 4 - Mental and physical health P16 - Influence of disability onset during childhood on life trajectories in men and women from Cameroon (HandiVIH – ANRS12302) - Charles Emmanuel Moute Nyokon, Paris P17 - Developmental schizotypy in the general population: associations with child protection reports and mental health contacts - Melissa Green, Darlington P18 - Childhood Developmental Vulnerabilities associated with Early Life Exposure to Infectious and Non-Infectious Diseases and Maternal Mental Illness - Melissa Green, Sydney Psychobiological development P19 - Psychobiological risk factors of anxiety disorders in adolescents; TRAILS study - Altanzul Narmandakh, Groningen P20 - Models for stress response in children: application to 6-month infants from the Wirral Child Health and Development Study (WCHADS ) - Andrew Pickles, London	Discussion Poster 5 - Antisocial behavior P21 - The Curaçao Longitudinal Study of Juvenile Resilience and Delinquency - AGNES de Lima-Heijns, Curacao P22 - A systematic review of mechanisms in the relationship between SES and child antisocial behaviour - NORA McIntyre, Sheffield Family functioning P23 - Experiences in peer relationships in adolescence and perceived parenting stress in young adulthood - TINA Kretschmer, Groningen P24 - The Influence of Harsh Parenting on Relationship Quality across Generations - TRICIA Neppl, Ames, Iowa	Discussion Poster 6 - Psychosocial development P25 - Developmental trajectories of anxiety and depressive symptoms from early childhood to school age: correspondence among mother and teacher reports - Marie Navarro, Bordeaux P26 - Examining the intertwined development of prosocial skills and ASD symptoms in adolescence - Anoek Sluiter-Oerlemans, Groningen P27 - Peer-victimisation trajectories from early childhood to adolescence - Sinziana Oncioiu, Bordeaux P28 - TRAILS Next - Tracking the next generation submit by: Jennifer Klop-Richards, Groningen
2:00 - 3:30 PM		S13 - Symposium 13 - Mental and physical health - 70 - The early roots of suicide: evidence from prospective birth cohort studies and meta-analysis - Ian Colman, Ottawa S13A - Developmental origins of suicidality: systematic review and meta-analysis of the in utero and perinatal influences on suicide mortality - Massimiliano Orri, Montreal S13B - Childhood cognitive trajectories of suicidal deaths by mid-adulthood: prospective investigations of the 1958 British Birth Cohort - Stéphane Richard-Devantoy, Montreal S13C - Life-course associations of childhood victimization and serious suicidal ideation, suicide attempt and mortality - Lea Perret et Marie-Claude Geoffroy, Montreal	Symposium 14 - Psychosocial development - 5 - Longitudinal associations between maternal depression and children's socio-emotional development - Anne-Laure Sutter-Dallay, Bordeaux S14A - Stability and change in behaviour problems across early childhood: contributions of maternal depression and child gender - Judith van der Waerden, Paris S14B - Longitudinal trajectories of maternal depressive symptoms and internalizing symptoms in the offspring - Marilyn Ahun, Montreal S14C - Comparing adolescent and adult depression: A longitudinal family study of symptom presentation - Frances Rice, Cardiff	OC4 - Free Communications 4 - Mental and physical health Moderator - Lydia Panico OC4A - Early Life Adversity and Cardiovascular Reactivity and Recovery - Stacey Doan, Claremont OC4B - Interbirth spacing and mental health disorders in the offspring at 11 years: 2004 Pelotas birth cohort study - Alicia Matijasevich, São Paulo OC4C - From home-based HIV testing to viral suppression: HIV care trajectories in the context of Universal Test-and-Treat in rural South Africa - Joseph Larmarange, Paris OC4D - From individual care trajectories to HIV care cascade at population level in rural KwaZulu-Natal (South Africa): the impact of population dynamics (ANRS 12249 TasP trial) - Joseph Larmarange, Paris OC4E - Get your children on time? A multi-cohort study on parental age and offspring mental health problems - Albertine Oldehinkel, Groningen OC4F - 80 - Optimizing life-course outcomes for children with hyperactivity: evidence from a prospective birth cohort - Stephan Collishaw, Cardiff
3:30 - 4:00 PM	Coffee break
4:00 - 5:00 PM		Keynote 4 - DNA methylation as a mediator in the link between early adversity and child and adolescent psychopathology - Ted Barker, London, UK		